

International Employers Forum

Afternoon Meeting

Presentation by GLOBO Language Solutions
Gene Schriver, CEO

Translation and Language Issues for the Multi-National Employer: Strategies for Successful Business, Employee and Legal Communications and Transactions

Topics to be covered will include:

- The role of translation and language issues in the success of global organizations
- Strategies that multi-national business, human resources and legal professionals can undertake to identify the needs and opportunities for ensuring business associates and employees obtain full and expeditious communications on matters of importance to them
- Methods to ensure that written and oral business communications are implemented with accurate and effective translations
- Special legal issues associated with communicating with employees, business associates and legal and governmental representatives in different languages
- Best practices and recommendations

Please RSVP to Karen Hyde by October 3
at khyde@laborlawyers.com or (610) 230-2175

This program has been submitted to the HR Certification Institute for review.

IEF

International Employers Forum

The International Employers Forum is a newly-forming non-profit organization dedicated to providing information and networking opportunities for legal and human resources professionals whose organizations employ workers internationally.

Thursday,
October 6, 2011

The Union League
140 South Broad Street
Philadelphia, PA

There is no cost for this event.

4:00 p.m. - 5:00 p.m.
Presentation

5:00 p.m. - 7:00 p.m.
Reception

Parking

Midtown Parking Garage
1415 Sansom Street

The dress code at the Union League is business casual including collared shirts and slacks for men.

This program is being sponsored by

FISHER & PHILLIPS LLP
ATTORNEYS AT LAW
Solutions at Work®

*Representing employers
in labor, employment, civil rights, employee benefits, and immigration matters*